Welcome

IX Regional Congress of the Southern Cone and Exclusive Summit of Family Medicine

Dear colleagues,

The Ibero-American Confederation of Family Medicine and the Uruguayan Society of Family and Community Medicine are honored to invite all family doctors to participate in an event of great significance for our specialty and primary healthcare in Ibero-America:

IX Regional Congress of the Southern Cone, IX Sub-Regional Congress of the Southern Cone, and XII Uruguayan Congress of Family and Community Medicine

Dates: May 23 and 24, 2025

Location: Conference Center of the Intendencia of Montevideo, Montevideo, Uruguay.

This event will bring together health teams from the **First Level of Care (PNA)** with the goal of strengthening the specialty of Family and Community Medicine, as well as advancing the development of Primary Health Care in our region. It will be an invaluable opportunity to share knowledge, experiences, and address the common challenges we face in our work. Your participation will be essential in building, together, a stronger and more committed primary care system for our communities.

IX Ibero-American Summit of Family and Community Medicine

Dates: May 21 and 22, 2025

Access: By invitation only.

The Ibero-American Confederation of Family and Community Medicine, along with the Uruguayan Society of Family and Community Medicine, is pleased to announce that Montevideo, Uruguay, will host the IX Ibero-American Summit of Family and Community Medicine, to be held on May 21 and 22, 2025.

WONCA-Iberoamericana-CIMF

This technical-political event is one of the most important for our specialty and will feature prominent professionals from Ibero-America, coming from various health institutions and universities, as well as health authorities.

The summit will provide a space for exchange, reflection, and debate, with the goal of strengthening health systems in the region.

We are excited to welcome you and share this space for learning and growth together.
